

Reading Month

October 2017

For the month of October	Reading worm: Students will read grade level appropriate books and get a tag from the library teacher; the tag will be pinned on the display board in class. The class that reads maximum number of books will celebrate a class party. Reading Corner: Students can come to the amphitheater during break for story time. Parents' Story Time: Parents can volunteer to read a story to their daughter's class during the library lessons. Reading Month Bingo: A calendar has been put up on the website. Please follow it for fun reading activities. I Got Caught Reading: Bring a picture of yourself reading a book; it will be displayed on the school display board.
5 th October	Pajama Day: Students will wear their night suits; bring a stuffed toy and a book to read.
10 th October	Character Day: Students will be divided in groups according to their choice of a book. They will choose a character from that book and make props in their art class. On Character Day students will display their props.
16 th October	Book Election: Every class will be given a list of books which the students will read. Class 4 students will run a campaign for their favourite book; the winning team will get a pizza party.
24 th October	Enid Blyton Day