

Class IX Website Resources

English Language:

Punctuation and grammar can be made fun with interactive activities and online MCQs, just click on the correct answer and the computer checks it for you. Here are a few websites you might find interesting.

The University of Bristol: Very comprehensive and higher order.

http://www.bristol.ac.uk/arts/exercises/grammar/grammar\_tutorial/page\_55.htm

Very basic but could be a quick refresher for past concepts:

<http://www.sheppardsoftware.com/grammar/punctuation.htm>

Another fun website with explanations (run on lines, choppy sentences, grammar, punctuation etc):

<http://www.chompchomp.com>

English Literature:

Still I Rise YouTube video links:

<https://youtu.be/Bgpe842gBoo>

<https://youtu.be/uF2opNn-qWY>

https://youtu.be/qviM\_GnJbOM

<https://youtu.be/uOqZqdhUj4o>

<https://youtu.be/URxwe6LPvkM>

<https://youtu.be/XTcPi4Qc-Ec>

Haunting photographs reveal the slave auctions held across America (Still I Rise Resource)

<http://dailym.ai/2B2b72z>

A concise Othello summary/themes/quotes etc to read:

<https://www.litcharts.com/lit/othello>