

Prep 2nd Term Outline

Lahore Grammar School 31 FCC

Dear Parents,

It has been an absolute joy to watch your children grow and learn throughout this year. Your child has worked hard and accomplished so much during this year. They have developed important academic and social skills that will serve them well as they continue on their educational journey. We are so proud of all that your child has achieved this term, and we know that they will continue to do great things in the years to come.

Thank you for your support and involvement throughout the year. Your partnership has been invaluable in helping your child succeed. We wish you all a safe and happy summer and look forward to seeing your child continue to flourish in the next school year.

A Summer Break Guide for Parents

As the summer break approaches, we want to take a moment to reflect on the past academic year and provide you with some tips to ensure that your child has a safe and enjoyable summer.

It is important to remember that summer break can present some unique challenges for both parents and children. With that in mind, we would like to offer the following tips to help ensure that your child has a safe and enjoyable summer:

1. Set a routine:

While it is important for children to enjoy the freedom of summer, maintaining a routine can help them stay on track and avoid boredom. Establish a consistent wake-up time, and scheduled activities, and make sure your child is getting enough sleep.

2. Encourage physical activity:

Summer is a great time for children to get outside and engage in physical activities. Encourage your child to participate in sports, go for walks or bike rides or play with friends.

3. Limit screen time:

Set limits on screentime and encourage your child to engage in activities that promote learning, curiosity, and creativity.

4. Foster a love of learning:

Encourage your child to continue reading, writing and learning during the summer months. Visit a book store go for a walk, visit a museum and explore new things.

Limit Screen Time

What is Appropriate Screen Time for my Children?

Recommendations for appropriate screen time use from the Canadian Paediatric Society and the American Academy of Pediatrics:

For children under 2 years screen time is not recommended.

For children 2-5 years limit screen time to 1 hr/day of quality and educational programming.

For children 6 and older, limit screen time consistently and monitor media that they are exposed to.

Do not make screen time a part of child care or supervision for children under 5 years of age.

Parents should co-view television with children from 2-5 years to support them in understanding what they are viewing.

Find the balance between screen time and behaviors that are important to health (sleep, physical activity, social engagement).

How to Get Children Away From Screens

Be consistent with limits.

Make sure that each day has the same amount of screen usage for your child and family.

Avoid background TV.

When not in use, turn off the television to avoid the distractions and normality of TV usage.

Set the example.

Model good screen behavior

for your children by putting down your tablets and cell phones during family time, and playing with the kids instead.

Encourage other activities.

As a parent, you can model and suggest healthy alternatives

such as outdoor play, reading a book, crafts, or board games.

Be a good observer, listener and asker.

Be more involved in your children's lives

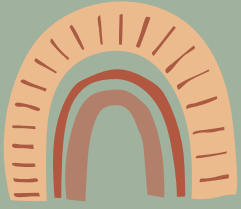

by asking questions, listening to their stories, and observing and commenting on their non-screen time play activities.

Become media literate.

Understand

television show/tablet game ratings, educational vs. un-educational, and high-quality programming vs. low-quality programming.

Straight from the Teachers' Hearts

As you prepare to leave this year, I want you to remember that you are capable of achieving great things. Don't be afraid to try new things and take risks. Believe in yourself and keep pushing forward. Lastly, always be kind, compassionate, and empathetic towards others. Wishing you all the best for the future.

Love,
Aunty Maida.

As the school year comes to a close, I want to take a moment to let you all know how truly proud I am of each one of you! You've made our classroom sparkle with your bright smiles, endless curiosity, and cheery laughter. Watching you grow and learn has been an absolute joy, and I feel so lucky to have been your teacher this year. Though we must say goodbye for now, please know that I will always cherish our time together. Have a fantastic summer holiday, and don't forget to keep learning and exploring the world around you.

With Love and Big Hugs,
Aunty Mehak

Work hard, and success will be knocking on your door. Have faith in yourself because I have faith in you. Good luck to you all Everything seems impossible until it is done♥

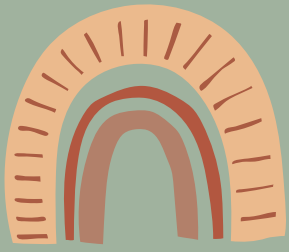

Love,
Aunty Ayesha

I can't tell you how proud I am of each one of you. I have loved watching you learn and explore the world around you. Your curiosity and creativity have made every day special. So keep learning, asking questions, and trying new things. I can't wait to see all the amazing things you will do in the future.

Love Aunty Farah

Straight from the Teachers' Hearts

I know that much of this year will fade from your memories with the passage of time. Some of this year will perhaps from my memory as well, but I hope that we see each other again. I hope that if we do, whether you are 7 or 27, we can look at one another with a smile and remember that Once Upon a Time, you were 5, and Once Upon a Time, I was your teacher. Until that day....

Aunty Durriya

It has been an absolute pleasure being your teacher this year. I have loved getting to know each and every one of you and watching you learn and grow. I will miss you all so much. Remember to always do your best and be kind to others. I wish you all the best for the next year.

With love and appreciation,
Aunty Samra

I have experienced your growth in learning over the past year. It was amazing to have you in my class! I hope to see you all have bright futures ahead. Wishing you all the best in life.

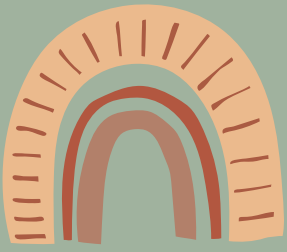

Love,
Aunty Amna

You all are like flowers, unique in your way. All of you have some special traits that I will cherish always. Wish you all, the best of everything.

Love,
Aunty Amina

Straight from the Teachers' Hearts

Throughout the year, we have explored many things, made new friends, laughed together, and grown in so many ways. I wish you continue to be curious, creative and kind to others. And I'm excited to see all the wonderful things you accomplish next year.

Love,
Aunty Maira

Thank you for trying your best. Thank you for making us smile and laugh each day. All the best!
